

Going the Distance

Engaging with the East Hartford Public Schools (EHPS) Distance Learning Plan (DLP)

In an effort to promote communication around the Distance Learning Plan (DLP), we have developed a “Going the Distance” bi-weekly update that will provide you with highlights and important resources and information to support your work, students, and families. We encourage you to click on each of the links below to explore a new section of the DLP website- one of the pages even has an entry form for an Amazon gift card! On behalf of the entire DLP Communications Team, thank you for all you continue to do for the students, families and one another during this uncertain time.

Update from Nate:

Xfinity has nothing on us!

We now have PD on demand so you can access learning at a time convenient for you. (Click the icon below to learn more)

Staff Highlight:

EHHS Social Worker and Tennis Coach Brian Reynolds goes above and beyond with this inspirational video message to students.

Celebrate with us!!! Dr. Veronica Marion and Mrs. Liz Peczuh will be making homemade guacamole in honor of Cinco de Mayo!

Connect with our Office of Family Community Partnerships to chat, connect, and even make guacamole! Click here for more information!

Attention Families!

OFCP is excited to announce that we have been granted FREE access to ABC Mouse, Adventure Academy, and Reading IQ for children in East Hartford. These research-based educational programs include thousands of digital learning activities and book titles online to keep students learning while schools are closed.
