Summary of Activity for the Advisor:

1. Have a student give their name and something they like to do.
2. Going around the room, have each person repeat the names of the five previous students and something for themselves. For example, the first person might say: "My name is Marisa. I like to wear jeans and hoop earrings," the next person would say: "Marisa likes to wear jeans and hoop earrings. My name is John and I like to play golf and go to Six Flags."
3. After you go through all of the students, invite a volunteer to go around the entire room and repeat all names and their interests.
